

Become a Charter Member of the Consultants Development Network.

Facilitated by Stephen Treacy M.S.

Who should join:

Anyone building or maintaining a small to medium consulting practice focused on the applied behavior sciences, i.e. organizational development, counseling, or HR consulting etc.

What we will do:

- ✓ Develop your marketing plans and strategies
- ✓ Create a unique business model for your practice
- ✓ Sponsor special presentations on topics of interest to members
- ✓ Share practice management and consulting challenges and design solutions
- ✓ Assist with consultation case management in group settings i.e. cohort approach

How it will work:

- ✓ Groups meet twice monthly
- ✓ Each member commits to attending at least one meeting per month
- ✓ We meet in small groups of four to seven
- ✓ You join for six-month terms
- ✓ An initiation fee of $250 includes a one-hour planning interview with Stephen Treacy
- ✓ Monthly dues of $75 include one meeting per month.
- ✓ Additional meetings that month are $50
- ✓ Meeting locations will include Naperville and Oak Brook

How you will benefit:

- ✓ Developing strategies so you obtain the right number of the right clients
- ✓ Peer and individual coaching that increases your skill level
- ✓ Learn strategies and steps for building and maintaining the practice you want
- ✓ Developing more interventions to use in your consulting work

Meetings will begin:

Tuesday, October 24, 2006

How to join:

Call or e-mail Stephen Treacy to reserve your place and schedule your planning interview.